This year the sixth annual Creek View Elementary Spelling Bee was held on January 11, 2008, and was broadcast live on our own Cheetah News Network. Before the school wide bee, fourth and fifth grade students had the opportunity to participate in their classroom spelling bees. The winner and runner-up from each class went on to compete in the school-wide spelling bee. Mrs. Josette Perez presided as the Spelling Bee host, while Media Specialist, Mrs. Diane Briggs, and Guidance Counselors, Mrs. Chris Emerson, and Mrs. Caren Allen served as judges. Students had to spell fourth through eighth grade vocabulary words. Some of the words included miniature, possession, maintenance, and medieval. It came down to fourth grader Brian Cai and fifth grader Aneesha Dasari. Aneesha prevailed as the winner correctly, spelling "ignorance." She will go on to compete at the Fulton County Spelling Bee on January 24, 2008, at River Eves Elementary School, in Roswell, at 5:00 p.m. She will have to compete against all winners from each elementary and middle school in Fulton County. Good Luck Aneesha!!
