A Whirlwind of Activities at Creek View Elementary School Annual Talent Show

Talent Show Director, Rickey Jordan

The Talented Teachers

Creek View held its 5th annual Talent Show, Thursday, January 4, 2008. Fifth grade students who were interested in displaying their talents were asked to audition December 12th, with the top twelve acts being selected by the Talent Show Committee. Once they were selected to the show, the students committed to six rehearsals and two performances. The twelve acts included: The 4th grade Show Choir, performing the opening and closing acts; Morgan Peele and Morgan Jefferies with a Jazz Dance; Nicole Izmaylov on the piano with an original composition; Hailey Rose and Margo Dempsey with How to Make a Sandwich; Maddie Pellicer singing; Daniel Martinez on home-made plastic drums; The Talented Teachers with a dance to "Get Your Head in the Game"; Shane Oglesby and Lee Older-Folkes with a comedy act; Maxine Simon and Alaleyone Randle with a dance routine; Marcus Sheffield on the piano; Libby Riordan and Madison Ambrogio performing a part of the Broadway Musical "Wicked"; Aneesha Dasari singing; Viet Ngyuen on piano; and Carlee Woodring singing. The Talent Show was a huge success, as Creek View students once again were able to show what talented students they truly are!

Geography Bee

The first round of the 2008 National Geographic Bee was held at Creek View Elementary school on January 18, 2008. Students competed in each fourth and fifth grade classroom to represent their class in the school bee. Shubhom Bhattacharya from Mrs. Goldsmith's fourth grade class won the National Geographic Bee for Creek View and will advance to the next level of competition, a written examination to determine state competitors. All school winners are eligible to win the national championship and its first prize, a $25,000 college scholarship, at the national competition May 20 and 21, 2008 in Washington, D.C.
