

CONFIDENTIALITY OF INFORMATION

The Office of Student Discipline adheres to the directives of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA). All information relating to student hearings is confidential to the students and their parents/guardians. Applicable documents and testimony can be subpoenaed for hearings. After a hearing a summary is written which does not include confidential information and is available through an Open Records request.