

Around the District

November 2017

Langston Hughes High 11th grader Wins Top Photography Award

Congratulations to Langston Hughes High 11th grader Latavia Davis who took top prize in the Atlanta Celebrates Photography (ACP) Open Exhibit and Competition.

Latavia was awarded first place in the high school category of the ACP photography competition, an annual contest that is a major part of the citywide Atlanta Celebrates Photography Festival.

Her photograph was among hundreds of entries from high schools across metro Atlanta, including several private schools. Students' creative images were featured as part the festival, which is the largest community-based photography festival in the U.S.

Congratulations also goes to Latavia's teacher, Mary Brezeale!