

6201 Powers Ferry Road
Atlanta, Georgia 30339

www.fultonschools.org

News Release

For Immediate Release

July 17, 2018

For More Information Contact

Carla Murphy or Anne Hampson Boatwright, Communications
470-254-6830 or communications@fultonschools.org

Media Advisory

A Seat at the Table: Fulton County Schools' first annual School Governance Conference

- Who: Fulton County Schools (FCS) Governance and Flexibility team
- What: “A Seat at the Table” - FCS is hosting its first annual School Governance Conference, an event in which elected members of School Governance Councils (SGC) can come together to learn best practices to engage in shared governance for the upcoming 2018-2019 year. SGCs are responsible for setting and monitoring the strategic direction of the schools.
- Packed with up-to-date information, the workshops will equip members to monitor their strategic plans and empower members to support their school initiatives. Breakout sessions covering a variety of topics are designed to hone existing skills for veteran council members and to build a solid foundation for newly-elected members.
- Media is invited to come learn about local school decision-making, budget and Strategic Plan recommendations, the three C’s of efficacy (clarity, communication, and culture) and more.
- When: Saturday, July 21, 2018, 8 a.m. – 12 p.m.

Where: Georgia State University Student Center East
55 Gilmer Street, SE
Atlanta, Ga 30303

###

About the Fulton County School System. The Fulton County School System is the fourth largest school system in Georgia. Approximately 96,700 students attend 105 schools in the cities of Alpharetta, Chattahoochee Hills, College Park, East Point, Fairburn, Hapeville, Johns Creek, Milton, Mountain Park, Palmetto, Roswell, Sandy Springs, South Fulton and Union City.