

News Release

For Immediate Release
July 26, 2018

For More Information Contact
Carla Murphy, Communications
470-254-6830 or communications@fultonschools.org

Media Advisory

Press briefing about 2018-2019 Back-to-School Season

What: Back-to-School media briefing to hear what's new for the Fulton County School System as well as how the district will be ready for the first day of school.

Reporters will have the opportunity to ask questions and have one-on-one interviews with Superintendent Jeff Rose and other key leaders, including those who manage instruction, personnel, technology, construction, bus transportation and school nutrition.

When: Monday, July 30
10:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m.

Where: Fulton County Schools
Administrative Center
6201 Powers Ferry Road, Atlanta

Who: Dr. Jeff Rose, Superintendent
Clifford Jones, Chief Academic Officer
Ron Wade, Chief Talent Officer
Patrick Burke, Chief Operations Officer

Why: The first day of school for the Fulton County School System is Monday, August 6. Fulton County continues to be the fourth largest school district in Georgia with a projected 2018-2019 enrollment of more than 95,000 students. The system includes 106 schools – 59 elementary schools, 19 middle schools, 18 high schools and 10 start-up charter schools.

###

About the Fulton County School System. The Fulton County School System is the fourth largest school system in Georgia. More than 95,000 students attend 106 schools in the cities of Alpharetta, Chattahoochee Hills, College Park, East Point, Fairburn, Hapeville, Johns Creek, Milton, Mountain Park, Palmetto, Roswell, Sandy Springs, South Fulton and Union City.