CRABAPPLE CROSSING ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

Crabapple Crossing

Elementary is a suburban public school in the fast-growing area of North Fulton County. CCES currently serves about 840 students in grades K through 5.

Crabapple Crossing is distinguished by a significant level of community and parental involvement, a stable and experienced teaching staff, technology leadership and a strong commitment to the cultural arts.

A special focus on math and reading programs allow parent volunteers and business partners to contribute time and incentives toward improving the skills of all students.

Crabapple Crossing continues to be a dynamic elementary school environment as students and staff grow and thrive amid changes and challenges, working and learning together.

Mission Statement

Through the combined efforts of staff, parents, and community of Crabapple Crossing Elementary School, we are dedicated to:

- * providing a positive, creative, safe environment
- * encouraging each child to achieve intellectually, emotionally, physically, socially, and aesthetically
- * meeting the needs of diverse learners
- * delivering quality instruction
- * preparing each student to meet the challenges of the 21st century

Opportunities for Involvement

There are many ways to get involved at CCES. A few opportunities include, but are not limited to the following...

- * Enhancing and developing student / teacher technology, building needs, and student playscapes
- * Teacher appreciation and teacher/ school professional of the year
- * Student awards and incentives
- * Family fun events
- * Directory advertising
