

Roswell Day of Hope- April 17, 2010

Building on the tremendous success of last year's community-wide outreach to area families in need, Roswell Day of Hope will again bring together local community organizations, churches and businesses to offer help and hope to thousands of families at this year's event Saturday, April 17, at 10 a.m.. The outreach will be held at Roswell City Hall, 38 Hill St. Free transportation to City Hall will also be provided by shuttle buses running to/from Mimosa Elementary School on Warsaw Rd., making access to the event available to even more families this year.

More than 50 Roswell-area social service organizations, churches and businesses, along with more than 1,000 volunteers will participate in the city-wide outreach, offering free groceries, health and dental screenings, a job fair, free haircuts, a Kids Zone with games and activities for children, and live entertainment. Roswell Day of Hope will begin at 10 a.m. Saturday, April 17, rain or shine. Free groceries will be distributed on a first-come, first-served basis while supplies last. No identification is required to receive services. Questions? Call the information line at 770-641-5578.
