

MEDIA CENTER

MISSION STATEMENT

Understanding that individuals differ in their attitudes, abilities, needs, and interests, the mission of the Centennial High School Media Center is to empower students to engage in learning that supports their becoming active, independent, and creative locators, evaluators, and ethical users of leading-edge instructional and information technology in an information-driven society.