

For the sixth consecutive year, students at Creek View Elementary School are performing Shakespeare.

For most students, the first opportunity to perform Shakespeare is in high school. This very unique elementary school production is made possible by the creative energies of a public-private partnership. Director Allen O'Reilly of Georgia Shakespeare with support from Assistant Director Marc Barrett of Creek View Elementary School will lead this production.

The students will perform Julius Caesar at 6:30 p.m. on Thursday, January 28, 2010 at Creek View.
