

Come to Drama Camp This Summer Here at Creek View Elementary!

For the 6th year now, the Creek View Summer Drama Camps return! Marc Barrett and Rickey Jordan, classroom teachers at Creek View, will instruct the camps this summer. These exciting camps will consist of a variety of activities that will enhance the student's passion for theatre, sharpen their performing skills, and develop their confidence and teamwork. Some of the skills that will be addressed during the camp are: audition techniques, stage performance, diction, projection, improvisation, storytelling, character development, and creative movement. On the Friday of every camp week at 1:30 p.m., students perform a potpourri of scenes and monologues demonstrating many of these skills. Mr. Barrett and Mr. Jordan direct many of the performing arts productions at Creek View including state award-winning films, the talent shows, and Shakespeare plays. With their energy and enthusiasm for youth drama and ATG's support of the performing arts, Summer Drama Camps at Creek View will be a blast for students!
