

Media Matters

EasyBib School Edition

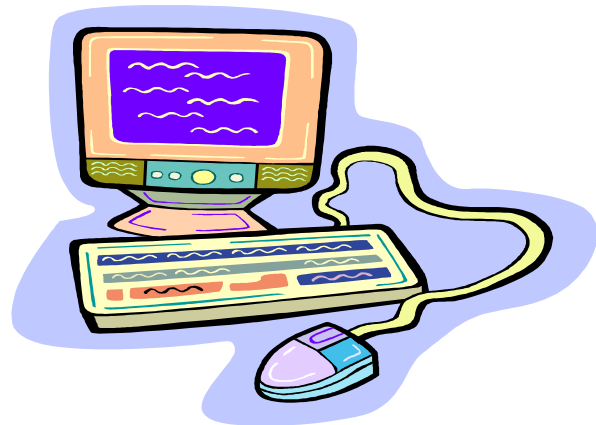

Special points of interest:

- EasyBib School Edition
- What's New?

EasyBib School Edition is a database that provides citations for:

- MLA 7th and 6th editions
- APA 6th
- Chicago 15th
- Turabian 7th

Some teachers are currently using Citation Machine.net but it will only give citations for about 8 to 10 different sources.

With EasyBib, you can:

- Receive citations from 55 different sources.
- Build a list of your citations.
- Export this list into Microsoft Word.
- E-mail the list.
- Share the list via Facebook or Twitter (from home only).
- Save the list to view on-

- line at a later date.
- Edit and delete the list.

McClarin has been given a FREE one month trial usage to this database effective now!!! Please take advantage of it. Our trial privileges will expire on November 5, 2009. At which time, students will be asked to give feedback on the product.

Students may secure their password and log-in instructions from any teacher or from the Media Team.

For additional information regarding EasyBib, you may contact the Media Specialist at:

fmhsmedia@gmail.com

The reply will read Media Specialist.

Readers Are Leaders!

What's New?

Scheduled to arrive the week of October 12th are the following books:

- PSAT/NMSQT
- Barron's ASVAB
- Cracking the GED
- Getting Financial Aid, 2010

Patterson's Basic Guides—2010:

- Four Year Colleges
- Two Year Colleges
- How to Get Money for College
- Scholarships, Grants & Prizes

These books will be located in the "College Corner Resource Center" in McClarin's Media Center.

SAT, ACT & GHSCT Study Guides arrived in September. Juniors and seniors are encouraged to view these resources.