A. PHILIP RANDOLPH ELEMENTARY
The Dolphin

Dear Parents,

Last Friday, Randolph's 4th graders and teachers were featured on 11 Alive News at Noon! The Weather Van came to Randolph and Meteorologist Paul Ossmann spoke to the students about how weather is tracked daily. Afterwards, Mr. Ossmann broadcasted live during the weather segment as the 4th graders sat in the background! What an exciting day!

Our 4th and 5th grade students had the opportunity to meet famous author Diana Zimmerman today. The students learned about building self confidence and self esteem. She also had a strong message on anti-bullying. Her presentation was outstanding and it helped the students to realize that there are no limitations to the success that they can have in their lives. Thank you to Donna Lowry-Reid for making it possible for both Ms. Zimmerman and Mr. Ossmann to visit our Randolph students.

Next Wednesday is Early Release Day. If you haven't returned your child's dismissal form, please do so tomorrow. Please remember, that someone must be at the bus stop in order for your child to be dropped off.

In closing, congratulations to Ms. C. Williams's 4th grade class for having the most students present at our most recent Chick-fil-a Night. Her class has won a nugget party and she will receive a gift basket.

Sincerely,
Christopher Askew, Principal

RANDOLPH'S 4TH ANNUAL ART SHOW!

Mark your calendars! This year's art show will take place on Thursday, December 10th from 6-8 pm in the gym. The show will feature professionally framed artwork from every Randolph student! Please bring your families and come to see what our talented Randolph artists have been up to lately.

Framed works will be available for $23 (cash or check, tax included) the night of the show. These works make wonderful holiday gifts, especially at this year's new, lower price! Online sales will unfortunately not be available this year. If you can't make it to the show, you're welcome to send the purchase amount to the art room in advance. Please attach a note with your student's name and homeroom teacher. Frames will not be available for purchase after December 10th.

All proceeds go to fund Randolph's art program. We appreciate your continued support of art education at Randolph Elementary, and can't wait to see you on December 10th!
