Dear Young,

My congratulations to you and the Centennial High School String Orchestra for a wonderful performance at the 59th Annual Midwest Conference. It is so good for me to have been part of your concert.

I am grateful that all of the music was performed so beautifully with wonderful technique, phrasing and musicianship. I know the preparation of the music and the organizational process you have to go through for this kind of event is very difficult. I hope that you feel that the effort was worthwhile. I know that I and the members of the audience are indebted to you for all of your efforts.

I hope that over the years we can stay in contact. I am personally pleased that I have known of your work and the dedication of the Centennial students to excellence in education and to orchestral performances. My sincere congratulations.

Best regards for continued success.
