

Cambridge Club List

2023-2024

(Updated January 2024)

Name of Club	Name of Sponsor(s)	Sponsor Email	Club Description	Club Dues?
African American Student Association	Daniel Scott	Scottd2@fultonschools.org	Our goal in the African American Student Association is to create a community for African American students at Cambridge while celebrating African American culture, welcoming others, and helping our community.	TBD
Archery Club	Don St James	stjamesd@fultonschools.org	We will shoot archery arrows at targets outside the gym on club days.	No
Bears 4 A Cure	Renee Jerome	jerome@fultonschools.org	This club rallies together to find ways to support children battling cancer. The variety of support provided ranges from making blankets, putting together snack bags, creating cards, and collecting toys (among other things) to help put smiles on children's faces while sitting through chemo or while facing other difficult times fighting cancer.	$20 dues
Bears Bible Study Club	Cody Westray	westrayc@fultonschools.org	The purpose of Bears Bible Study Club is to help bring Christ into students' lives and to help them create a long-lasting relationship that they will carry with them their entire lives. This club discusses the teachings of the Bible while helping students learn how to apply these teachings in their everyday life.
Bears for Mental Health	Cecilia Bercher	bercher@fultonschools.org	Bears for Mental Health is a club dedicated to breaking down the negative stigma of mental health issues. We come together to discuss mental health related	No topics, and we think about how things in our world affect our mental health. We typically meet once per week, and we occasionally participate in volunteer opportunities around the community.

Bear Buddies	Sybil Laursen	laursen@fultonschools.org	Club for students to interact with and befriend our CBI students in various high school settings such as sporting events, dances, Special Olympic events, etc.	No
BETA	Kari Flores and Anu Krishna	floresk@fultonschools.org and krishna@fultonschools.org	Beta club is committed to recognizing and promoting high academic achievement, rewarding and nurturing worthy character, fostering leadership skills and encouraging service to others. Beta club members will seek to support the school and community by participating in service hours throughout the school year.	$25 for new members, $10 for returning members
Book Club	Laura Morgan	morganl1@fultonschools.org	A book club where students can freely read and discuss books that they love with their friends and fellow students.	$15
Bridge to Asia	Michael Shea Jeremy Fulk Emily Gibson	sheam@fultonschools.org fulkj@fultonschools.org gibsone@fultonschools.org	Bridge to Asia encourages Cambridge students to develop an interest in and learn about Asia. Bridge to Asia will hold regular meetings and help support the May/June summer excursions to Taiwan, South Korea, Japan, Singapore, and Malaysia.	TBD
Cambridge Bridging Generations	Cecilia Redman	redman@fultonschools.org	At Bridging Generations, CHS students partner with Cottonwood Estates Gracious Retirement to plan fun and enjoyable events where students and seniors can spend quality time together. Students play games and make all sorts of crafts with the seniors. In addition, each event is a great opportunity to earn service hours for other clubs such as Beta, National Honor Society, etc.	$10
Cambridge Chess Club	Michael Shea	sheam@fultonschools.org	The Cambridge Chess Club meets weekly on school grounds. Club members will have the opportunity to learn about the game, including chess openings and game strategies. Club members will also have	No the opportunity to play Fast Chess games during meetings. There may be opportunities to attend and/or play in occasional events or tournaments off school grounds. There are no club dues associated with Cambridge Chess Club.

Cambridge Equestrian IEA	Sara Reeves	reevess1@fultonschools.org		No
Cambridge Furkids Animal Rescue	Cecilia Redman	redman@fultonschools.org	Students volunteer once a month at Furkids Shelters on Union Hill Rd by cleaning cages, socializing, feeding and interacting with the animals. Students will need to sign a volunteer waiver and pay dues.	$20
Cambridge Hockey Team	Megon Garcia	garciam1@fultonschools.org	The Cambridge Bears Hockey Team represents Cambridge High School in the Georgia Student Hockey League (GSHL). It is a competitive ice hockey team that plays against other schools in the state of Georgia. Tryouts are hosted in the fall, and the season runs from October to February, concluding with a State Playoff Tournament in March. All team meetings, practices, and games take place outside of the Cambridge campus. Coach Chris contact - cambridgebearshockey@gmail.com	Club Sports Team- Players pay based on annual GSHL fees and for uniforms
Cambridge HOSA	Gena Barnhardt	barnhardtg@fultonschools.org	HOSA is an international student organization recognized by the U.S. Department of Education and the Health Science Education (HSE) Division of ACTE. HOSA's two-fold mission is to promote career opportunities in the health care industry and to enhance the delivery of quality health care to all people.	$45
Cambridge Model United Nations	Michael Shea	sheam@fultonschools.org	Cambridge Model United Nations (MUN) meets weekly to help students prepare for sanctioned high school and college MUN events. We generally compete in two events per year, one in the fall and one in	$25 one-time dues, plus any additional conference fees over that amount as needed.

			the spring. MUN provides an excellent opportunity for students to practice their negotiation, public speaking, and research skills.
Cambridge Reading Bowl Team	Laura Morgan	morganl1@fultonschools.org	Reading Bowl is a team competition to promote the GA Peach Book Award nominees - the best books for teens in the last year. The Cambridge Team meets regularly with the expectation that each member will read at least 5 books from the list. We enjoy reading & talking about books. We compete in a quiz-bowl style competition answering questions about the books against other schools in the county in January.	No
Cambridge Red Cross club	Michal Lanham and Gene Kim	lanhamm@fultonschools.org king@fultonschools.org	Red Cross club represents the American Red Cross. In our club we do community service projects during the semester, and we also provide volunteer opportunities for our members to do service on their own. Some of our projects include CHS service day, blood drives and opportunities to be CPR certified.	TBD
Ceramics Club	Sam Harris	harriss9@fultonschools.org	Ceramics club is a space for all levels of practice and will meet twice a month on Tuesday afternoons in RM 1.507 during the school year. Students do not need to be enrolled in a Ceramics class to participate. We will explore traditional hand building and wheel throwing techniques. Students will experiment with glaze and non-glaze surface designs. The projects are less curriculum based and more about the students' personal voice through clay.	Students are responsible for a $30 due that will cover their club shirt and consumable materials during the year.
Chess Club	Michael Shea	sheam@fultonschools.org	The chess club encourages having fun with chess while improving! Our practices consist of learning openings, solving puzzles, and playing chess. We may hold tournaments outside of school as the year progresses.	No

Create Change America	Donna Wrinkle	wrinkle@fultonschools.org	We are a volunteer organization that does outreach projects with the goal of bettering our community.	$20
Debate	Renee Westlake and Karen Allen	westlaker1@fultonschools.org	The purpose of debate is to foster critical thinking, research and writing, and oral presentation and discourse skills. Students will meet twice weekly where they practice the skills necessary to participate in debate competitions. Students, on average, participate in approximately 4-6 debate competitions per year. These debates take place normally over the weekends and are either in-state and/or virtual.	No; however, there are entry fees for the tournaments
ENGin Bears	Jeff Davis	davisj123@fultonschools.org	ENGin Bears is affiliated with the non-profit ENGin. The organization pairs English-speaking volunteers with Ukrainian students through 1-on-1 virtual meetings to help them confidently speak in fluent, conversational English. ENGin Bears will meet with their Ukrainian partner for one hour per week. The club will work to create events to awareness for ENGin and young Ukrainians to propel Ukraine's postwar reconstruction and longer-term economic & social development.	No
Fashion Club	Thomala Wright	wrightt3@fultonschools.org	The Fashion Club is an organization that fosters diversity, inclusion, creativity and the exploration of the fashion industry, current fashion trends and opportunities to share personal culture through fashion as a form of self-expression.	Not at this time.
Fellow Christian Athletes	Carmen Dabney and Craig Bennett	dabneyc@fultonschools.org bennettc@fultonschools.org	FCA focuses on encouraging and equipping students, student-athletes,	No coaches and adult leaders to impact and influence their campus for Christ.

Future Farmers of America (FFA)	Ginger Jarjoura, Sara Reeves, and Dakota Martin	jarjourag@fultonschools.org reevess1@fultonschools.org martind9@fultonschools.org	FFA is an intracurricular student organization for those who are enrolled in an agricultural education course. Our organization aims to provide opportunities that foster the FFA Mission in our classes, school, and community. Members who participate in FFA gain real world experiences in leadership and career development events at the local, state, and national levels. "FFA makes a positive difference in the lives of students by developing their potential for premier leadership, personal growth and career success through agricultural education" (FFA Mission).	$35 annually
National French Honor Society	Ann LeClair-Ash and Colleen Baldrige	ashann@fultonschools.org baldridgecd@fultonschools.org	National French Honor Society focuses on activities and service projects of a global nature. Most of our service projects benefit an English school in Haiti. Students hold fundraisers and drives to provide school supplies, resources and scholarships for the Haitian students. In early spring, we will hold a Mardi Gras Bingo night to benefit the Haitian school. NFHS students also help the Haitian students improve their English by participating in online conversations. The global service hours that NFHS students attain may be used toward the 20-hour service hour requirement for the International Skills Diploma Seal.	$35 annually (includes t-shirt)
Future Business Leaders of America	June Yarrington, Vonda Paulus, and Katie Morgan	yarrington@fultonschools.org paulusvw@fultonschools.org morgank5@fultonschools.org	Future Business Leaders of America inspires and prepares students to build friendships, earn recognition and explore careers in business and technology.	$45

Genders and Sexualities Alliance	Jeremy Fulk	fulkj@fultonschools.org	A place for persons to be their authentic self	No
Green Students of Cambridge	Katrina Trainum	trainum@fultonschools.org	Green Students of Cambridge focuses on implementing sustainability practices, providing service hours for students, getting creative with volunteer activities (on and off campus), and initiating social activities. Some activities include cleaning up Chattahoochee trails and rivers and helping clean up our high school campus.	$25
International Thespian Society Troupe #7858	Cory Kelley	kelleyc1@fultonschools.org	The International Thespian Society is the only theatre honor society for middle and high school students in the United States. Affiliation brings credibility and distinction to students, theatre programs, and schools. It is a visible, positive symbol of the quality of your theatre program. ITS recognizes, rewards, and encourages student achievement and celebrates the work of students in all aspects of theatre – performance and production. Each student is honored on a national level and gains access to opportunities and resources beyond those of their school. Cambridge High School's Troupe #7858 was recognized as a Georgia High School Gold Level Troupe for 2021-2022, one of the highest honors in the state awarded to a theatre troupe, for our involvement in the school and community and for being dedicated ambassadors of the dramatic arts.	$25.00 for returning members. $40.00 for newly inducted.
Junior Classical League	Jeffery Davis	davisj123@fultonschools.org	The Cambridge Junior Classical League (JCL) exists to celebrate the study of the Classics, i.e., Greco-Roman culture and language. JCL members gather to enjoy friendship, play games/sports, share stories, create art, compete in academic	$45, includes t-shirt contests, serve our community, and show lots of spirit. Twice each year JCL members from around the state meet for state-wide competition and camaraderie. Chariot racing and sword fighting are usually involved.

Math Team	Ms. O'Dowd and Ms. Krishna	ODowd@fultonschools.org krishna@fultonschools.org	The math team is a community full of those with a passion for math. We solve various, interesting problems that require you to think outside the box! These problems will challenge you, but by joining the math team, your problem-solving skills will increase immensely, helping you to succeed on the AMC, SAT, ACT, and other math competitions. The math team also travels to several math tournaments across the state on Saturdays.	$20
Mock Trial	Lacy George	GeorgeLK@fultonschools.org	Mock trial is a competition in which students simulate a real trial. Students prepare as either witnesses or attorneys (or both!) to try a civil or criminal case, arguing for either the prosecution or defense, and compete against other teams in the state. There's also a courtroom artist competition that students can enter.	$45
Mu Alpha Theta	Debbie Tropauer and Lori Delorenzo	tropauer@fultonschools.org	National math honors society. We provide math tutoring for students.	$10
Muslim Student Association	Chris Meyer	meyerc2@fultonschools.org	To promote and champion causes for Muslim students at Cambridge High School.	$25
National Art Honor Society	Natalie Hudson	hudsonn@fultonschools.org	National Art Honor Society brings students with honors average in visual arts together to celebrate and create arts events within our community.	$20
National English Honors Society	Robin Butler	butlerrob@fultonschools.org	We are a part of the National English Honors Society. Membership is based on teacher nominations and application process. Our purpose is to help Cambridge High School with writing help, reading	$15 recommendations, and a literary magazine (in progress).

National Latin Honor Society	Jeffery Davis	davisj123@fultonschools.org	The National Junior Classical League's National Latin Honor Society is a special designation given to JCL students who have demonstrated outstanding academic achievement and citizenship in Latin class. NJCL Latin Honor Society induction matters because it shows prospective colleges and employers that a student values high academic achievement and has maintained proper citizenship. Colleges especially value language honor society induction because they are eager to accept students who challenge themselves in meaningful courses and who succeed. The Latin Honor Society membership is earned annually based on student performance. Membership requires a minimum of five (5) consecutive semesters of an A in Latin courses, continued study of Latin throughout high school, service hours, and current membership in JCL.	yes, one-time induction fee of $35
National Social Studies Honor Society	Mark Schuler	schulerm@fultonschools.org	National Social Studies Honor Society is a civic-minded group that supports social studies advancement both in and out of the school. Within Cambridge, NSSHS will help with peer tutoring for students that are struggling with their social studies courses. Outside Cambridge, NSSHS members participate in a variety of community outreach programs. During meetings, members will discuss topics that are relevant to them. Membership is open to Junior and Seniors with minimum requirements and will meet semimonthly.	Currently not for this year but that may change to $5
No Place for Hate	Korin Pinsky	pinskyk@fultonschools.org	No place for Hate is a collaborative initiative that provides PreK-12 schools with an organizing framework for students, administrators, teachers and family members to develop long-term	No solutions for creating and maintaining an inclusive and equitable climate.

P.A.T.C.H: Performing Arts Technicians Cambridge High	Cory Kelley & Elizabeth Justice	kelleyc1@fultonschools.org justicee@fultonschools.org	Performing Arts Technicians Cambridge High exists to give students real-world experience as sound and lighting technicians through hands-on experience at Cambridge High School events. Whether you are currently in one of the performing arts disciplines (theatre, orchestra, choir, or band) or not, any student with a strong interest is eligible to participate as long as they possess a strong work-ethic, a keen ear, and a good eye.	$25
Philosophy Club	Brian McDearmon	mcdearmonb@fultonschools.org	Students learn about enduring philosophical debates on matters such as free will, the relationship between consciousness and the brain, the existence of evil, and the nature of knowledge. The club uses popular culture and current events to explore these and other big questions and appreciate their practical implications for how we should live.	No
Photography Club	David Batterman	batterman@fultonschools.org	Photography Club is a place for all students who are interested in taking pictures, cameras, photo processes and collaboration with other like-minded peers. We submit images to local exhibitions and competitions, chat about how to take better photos, equipment, software and apps, and provide a safe and supportive environment for students to share and talk about their work. There are no dues and membership is open to any student with an interest in photography and image making.	No
Science National Honor Society	Dr. Singh and Dr. Kerr	singha@fultonschools.org and kerrE@fultonschools.org	The Science National Honor Society encourages participation in and recognition of scientific and intellectual thought. Students will participate in community service, and in turn, encourage a dedication to the pursuit of	$35 scientific knowledge that benefits all mankind.

Science Olympiad	Gena Barnhardt	barnhardtg@fultonschools.org	Science Olympiad is an American team competition in which students compete in 23 individual and team events pertaining to various fields of science, including earth science, biology, chemistry, physics, and engineering.	$35
SkillsUSA	Tim Hart, Chris Meyer, and Chris Holcomb	hartt@fultonschools.org meyerc2@fultonschools.org holcombc3@fultonschools.org	SkillsUSA is a Career and Technical National organization that works in partnership with students, teachers and Industry members who work together to ensure America has a skilled work force. SkillsUSA focuses on leadership training and employability skills needed in today's workforce.	$30
Sociedad Honoraria Hispanica	Cecilia Redman	redman@fultonschools.org	The Sociedad Honoraria Hispánica (SHH) is an honor society for high school students enrolled in Spanish and/or Portuguese, sponsored by the American Association of Teachers of Spanish and Portuguese (AATSP). The mission of the Sociedad Honoraria Hispánica is to recognize high school achievement in Spanish and Portuguese and to promote interest in Hispanic and Luso-Brazilian studies. High school students who have maintained an A honor average in the study of Spanish or Portuguese for a minimum of three semesters and is in the 10th grade or higher is eligible to be a member of the SHH.	$25- new members, $20 previously inducted members
Spikeball Club	Ms. Trainum and Mr. Manos	trainum@fultonschools.org manose@fultonschools.org	Our purpose is to encourage Cambridge students to build a community and meet new friends through friendly and recreational games of Spikeball.	No
Stock Market Game Club	Florence Heybroek	heybroekf@fultonschools.org	In Fall and Spring, we'll play the online Stock Market Investment Game. It is a simulation game in which students invest	$5 per team virtual money in stocks with real time exchange rates. The game is supported by the Georgia Council on Economic Education.

Technology Student Association (TSA)	John Friske	friske@fultonschools.org	The Technology Student Association (TSA) enhances personal development, leadership, and career opportunities in STEM, whereby members apply and integrate these concepts through intracurricular activities, competitions, and related programs.	$50
Tri-M Music Honor Society	Elizabeth Justice	JusticeE@fultonschools.org	The Tri-M Music Honor Society is a program of the National Association for Music Education (NAfME), which focuses on creating future leaders in music education and music advocacy. Tri-M is the only music honor society for high school students in the country. Tri-M recognizes students that have gone above and beyond both academically and musically. Tri-M also provides students with leadership opportunities to make a difference in their community through music-based service projects.	$15
UGA Heros	David Akin	akind@fultonschools.org	UGA HEROs strives to improve the quality of life for children in Georgia by raising money to support the programs offered by Hearts Everywhere Reaching Out (HERO) for Children, Inc., spreading awareness about the growing problem of pediatric AIDS, and participating in service initiatives aimed at improving the lives of affected children.	No
Ultimate Frisbee Club	Jeff Davis	davisj123@fultonschools.org	We play Ultimate Frisbee sometimes on campus, sometimes at North Park.	No
Cambridge UNICEF Unite	Sarah Haynie	haynies@fultonschools.org	UNITE mobilizes volunteers from all walks of life and every corner of the country in pursuit of one common goal: to ensure a better world for every child. The Cambridge UNICEF Unite club aims to raise funds and complete community	No service projects benefitting children in the local community and around the world through the UNICEF program.

Unit for Change	Debbie Tropauer	tropauer@fultonschools.org	The organization focuses on providing necessities to underprivileged children in various locations, such as hospitals and orphanages.	No
Vibha Club	Anubha Singh	singha@fultonschools.org	Vibha club at Cambridge will be working with the Vibha Organization and other Vibha programs in the area to participate in volunteer activities that will benefit people in need in our local community and abroad.	No
Video Game Club	Megon Garcia	garciam1@fultonschools.org	Video Game Club allows Cambridge students to meet other video game enthusiasts and game together. We have a wide variety of interests and welcome all students who love gaming to join our club.	No
Boys Volleyball Club	Gene Kim and Brianna Bullock	king@fultonschools.org , bullockk@fultonschools.org	Our purpose is to practice and have matches with other teams such as Johns Creek HS, Denmark HS, Lambert HS, Alatoona HS, Berkmar HS, etc. Some matches may take place at other schools.	TBD
Women in Athletics	Amy Muta	mutaa@fultonschools.org	To celebrate and encourage girls/women to try sports and learn how being in a sport can improve mental health, physical health and well being	No
Women in Stem	Anubha Singh	singha@fultonschools.org	Our mission is to help close the gender gap within STEM fields through inspiring young girls to explore the unique pathways that STEM offers. Members will meet with guest speakers and connect with other STEM-interested students through off-campus science expos and fairs. Members will also have the opportunity to complete community service through creating a Women's History Month Mural and running our	$13 for shirts annual canned food drive for the Drake House.

--	--	--	---	--

.