Meet Dr. Ethel Lett
New Principal, Tri-Cities High School

Dr. Lett has been in education since 1994 and joined Fulton County Schools in 1998 as an English teacher at Tri-Cities High School where she taught for 6 years before transitioning into the role of Title I School Improvement ELA Instructional Coach. Dr. Lett has served as a Reading Endorsement instructor, Title I Lead Instructional Coach, and Title I School

Improvement Specialist for FCS where she helped school-based teams craft plans for school success. In 2011, Dr. Lett was tremendously excited to return to Tri-Cities High School as the Curriculum Assistant Principal for 6 years before moving to S.L. Lewis Elementary School as the Assistant Principal in July 2016. In March 2017, she was officially named as the Principal of S.L. Lewis Elementary School.

Dr. Lett is a native of Mobile, Alabama. She attended Mississippi Valley State University, University of Mobile, Jacksonville State University, and continued to further her studies at Georgia Southern University where she earned a Doctor of Education degree in Educational Leadership.

Dr. Lett is a servant leader who is focused on the growth and well-being of people and the communities to which they belong. She strives daily to build strong relationships among students, staff, and stakeholders. She has one son, who is a high school senior. Dr. Lett is extremely grateful and excited for the opportunity to rejoin “Bulldog Nation” as its leader and will continue to challenge each student to grow in his/her academic abilities.
