

What if I have a concern with my child's charter school?

While the Fulton County School district retains ultimate authority over approved charter schools, it is a FCS practice to request that parents work through the processes identified by the charter school to resolve school-level issues.

Fulton County Schools respects the autonomy of the charter school and will not become involved in school level matters unless there is a serious issue such as a health or safety concern, federal or civil rights compliance issues, or evidence of criminal wrongdoing.

FCS addresses health/safety, federal compliance and civil rights issues, or evidence of criminal wrongdoing.