Purpose

The Program for the Education of Children and Youth in Transition provides comprehensive services to children and youth attending Fulton County Public Schools who are experiencing homelessness. The program ensures educational rights and protections for homeless children, including preschoolers and unaccompanied youth. The Program is governed by the McKinney - Vento Homeless Education Assistance Act as reauthorized in 2002.

Who are homeless children and youth?

Children and youth who lack a fixed, regular, and adequate nighttime residence, including children and youth who are:

- On the street
- Sharing the housing of others due to eviction, loss of housing, or economic hardship
- Living in emergency or transitional shelters
- Living in motels or hotels due to lack of alternative adequate accommodations
- Living in cars, parks, abandoned buildings or any similar public or private setting not ordinarily used as regular sleeping accommodations for human beings

Services

This program provides the following services to students experiencing homelessness:

- Enrollment Assistance
- Records Assistance
- Transportation Assistance
- Free lunch
- School supplies and uniforms
- Academic support
- After school Enrichment
- Referrals for medical, dental, and mental health services
