In an effort to raise money for a local Suicide Prevention organization, we are asking for all students and staff to donate $1 to this fundraising campaign. Students can drop off money in the counseling office and counselors will be coming around with buckets during Chatt time later this week. If every student in our building gave one dollar, we could raise almost $2000! Help save lives by donating to this cause. We can do it!

FBLA will begin the annual “Can Bowl”, a canned food drive competition, against Johns Creek High School to see which school will collect the most cans! Cans will be collected in Math and English classes as well as G122 starting on Wednesday, September 4th through Friday, September 13th. The school winner will be announced on September 20th at the Hooch vs Johns Creek football game. Together we can fight hunger!

Fulton County School Nutrition Program meals are student-friendly and nutritionally sound. Menus and standardized recipes are planned by Registered Dietitians and Certified School Nutrition experts to meet healthier meal requirements, as part of the Healthy, Hunger-Free Kids Act. Come by our awesome café during breakfast and lunch and check it out. We have our menus posted on our chattcougar.com website.
