Daily Announcements

February 28, 2023

If you have purchased a ticket for prom, remember to submit your permission form to the AP office. The forms are available in the AP office. All students going to Prom must submit the event participation consent form, and if you are bringing a date who is not a student at Chattahoochee, there is an additional form. Tickets are required for entry. Tickets may be picked up beginning March 15 before and after school and during CHATT time in F120. All forms must be submitted before you may pick up your tickets.

Join us to celebrate all the cultures around the world TOMORROW for the 2023 Hooch International Night. Performances in the auditorium will be from 5:30-7:30PM followed by food in the cafeteria from 7:30-9PM. Purchase your ticket at Online School Payments.

To continue to celebrate International Night, TOMORROW is a Cultural Spirit Day! Come dressed up to represent your culture. Be sure to wear cultural clothes later that evening for International Night, too! Tickets are available for purchase on Online School Payments.

Attention seniors: If you already took an AP- World Language exam and earned a score of 4 or 5, you are eligible to receive the "Biliteracy seal". Follow the link on the Hooch website for more information. For any question see Sra. Ali in E-114. The deadline is TOMORROW, March 1st.

Have you heard the news? The cafe is serving farm fresh, locally grown radishes at lunch in your signature side salads! These locally grown radishes are heading straight from a family farm to your plate. Because it's grown closer to home it helps support our local farmers and takes less fuel to get it to our café. You will have to check out the café at lunch to try these radishes for yourself!
