Today is the day! Get ready to taste locally grown sweet potatoes! If you haven’t already heard, the Sweet potatoes served in the café are grown by North Carolina Farmers, which means these Sweet potatoes are at peak freshness and are more environmentally friendly. Because they are grown close to home it helps support out local farmers and take less fuel to get it to your school. Be sure to pick up locally grown Sweet Potatoes from the café today.

Hooch HOSA is supporting NFCC this Thanksgiving by hosting a can drive. The cans will be given to those in need this Thanksgiving Season. Please bring your canned goods to various locations around the building.

HOSA is raising awareness for Pediatric Cancer this week. Childhood cancer research is consistently underfunded. Less than 4% of the federal budget for cancer research is dedicated to childhood cancer. This is why the National Pediatric Cancer foundation is here today, to help spread awareness and fund childhood cancer.

Track and Field will be holding an interest meeting in the media center after school on Monday, November 11. Any interested athlete should attend.

Attention Athletes! The next Letter Jacket Fitting will be on Thursday, December 12th in the Cafeteria during all three lunches. $175.00 deposit is REQUIRED to order the jacket. The letter jacket base price is 325.00. Bring all the patches and the letter you want on the jacket.

Attention Seniors! The December 1st deadline for college applications is quickly approaching. If you are applying to a college with this deadline then you must submit your request for a counselor recommendation or school report by Monday, November 11th. Be sure to join your counselor’s google classroom for steps on how to submit these requests. Please remember, ten school days are required for all requests submitted.

This is a reminder to students that no food is to be taken into classrooms. There are two designated areas for eating at Chattahoochee- the cafeteria and the courtyard. Be sure to always throw out your trash and clean up your eating area before leaving. Please help us keep Chattahoochee clean!

All seniors who purchase a yearbook ad before November 14 will be entered to win a pair of Apple Air pods! Senior ads can be created online at hoochyearbook.com.

If you are interested in a Spring 2020 TAG Internship, please see Mrs. Wile in H117 TODAY.

Juniors/Seniors- we have a college fair coming up at Alpharetta High School on November 14th from 6-8 pm in their media Center. 36 universities have confirmed their attendance. Please come to meet them. You can bring your parents and come prepared to ask any questions you might have. Let’s represent the Hooch at this event!
Tuesday November 12th come out for dinner or lunch with your 25% coupon to city barbeque on 141, to support your Hooch band program. Pick up your coupon at the front office or at the band room. Please help us spread the word by giving out some coupons to family, friends and neighbors. Hope to see you all there for some great ribs, mac and cheese and chocolate cake.
