Red Ribbon Week

October 26th - 28th

Red Ribbon Week began in 1985 as a campaign to educate our children about the negative effects of drugs and alcohol.

Tuesday October 26th: I am RED-y to Say NO to Drugs!

Wear Red Day” – Faculty, Staff, and Scholars are encouraged to wear red as a symbol for a drug free land. Scholars will also receive a red wristband to wear on their wrist stating, “I am Living Drug Free at CPE!”. The Scholars and staff can wear the wristband daily.

Wednesday October 27th: Team Up Against Drugs!

Faculty, Staff, and Scholars are asked to wear your favorite team jersey (Professional, College, Little league, etc.). Scholars will receive a red pencil stating, “I am Living Drug Free at CPE!”. This is to show that no matter what TEAM you are on that, “Together Everyone Achieves More.”

Thursday October 28th: Put a Cap on Drugs!

Faculty, Staff, and Scholars are encouraged to wear your favorite hat as a symbol for capping the use of drugs.
