

Announcements Week of November 29 - December 2, 2022

Congratulations to our students who are performing in the Roswell's Dance Theater Nutcracker this upcoming week! We are proud of you: Morgan Tabb, Meyer Spence, Finley Williams, Nellie Holt, Brooklyn Lednik, Aiya Elitr, Sarah Ruth Bachmeier and Miriam Bachmeier, Abigail Barnes)

Congratulations to the RHS Esports team for a fantastic season. The Smash 1 team has one their first regional match.

There is now a prayer room available to accommodate muslim students in the library from 11:30-1:30. The room will be available for all muslims students during lunch hours. If help is needed to find the area, please check with Ms. Allegood and Ms. Michaud in the Media Center.

Hola ! HOPE is hosting a Latin Baile this Friday, December 2nd from 7-10pm in the RHS Cafeteria. There will be great music, food, and dancing, including dance lessons from 7-7:30 for those who would like to learn. Tickets can be purchased through OSP, and there are flyers in the hall with a QR code to that link. HOPE to see you there!

The Sophomore Class is doing a coat drive! Please bring your gently used coats, scarves, gloves and sweaters to room 908 for donation. All items will be given to North Fulton Charities, to help people and families who need help keeping warm this holiday season. We will collect items through the Monday of finals week!

The 9th grade student council members will be selling candy cane grams on December 5th, 7th, and 8th for $2 cash before school and during lunches. The candy cane grams will be delivered on Friday, December 9th. Let's spread some holiday cheer!

Come Cheer for the Hornets this Friday, December 2 at 8:00 p.m. at the Football Final Four vs Gainesville @ McEachern! Special Time as the game will be televised.
