Good Morning Raiders,

This week is National Teacher Appreciation Week! Thank you to our amazing PTSA for planning a week's worth of celebrations each day for our teachers. Students and parents, please do take a moment this week to reach out to your teachers and share words of gratitude.

This is also AHS' annual Honors Week! We will kick off the week this evening at 7pm for a Virtual Honors Night where we will celebrate the top academic honors for our students. Throughout this week, parents, be on the lookout for an e-mail from our teachers identifying the students who are being honored by each teacher, and certificates will be e-mailed directly to students on May 6th.

AP Testing began this morning and will continue over the next two weeks. Tomorrow morning we have AP Calculus AB & BC and the afternoon exam is AP Human Geography. Please remember that students must line up at 7:40 a.m. for the a.m. test and at 12:25 for the p.m. test.

Raiders, please look for a communication via e-mail from me today that outlines Fulton County Schools' updates to Covid-19 restrictions including a mask mandate update.
