

Roswell High School's Mission is to create a positive and safe learning environment, to foster the development of each student's potential, and to provide pathways to success after graduation.

Roswell High School Student Dress Code 2023-2024 School Year

Students in the school system are expected to dress and groom themselves in such a way as to reflect neatness, cleanliness and safety. All students shall dress appropriately so as not to disrupt or interfere with the educational program or the orderly operation of the school. Designated dress involving school activities approved by the principal shall be acceptable.

Fulton County School District Student Code of Conduct

Roswell High students are expected to dress and be groomed to reflect neatness, cleanliness, and safety. Student dress should not distract from or cause disruption in the educational program or orderly operation of the school.

The RHS administration is committed to supporting and protecting a student's right to self-expression, especially in terms of individual dress. The administration reserves the right to make any amendments in the best interest of the students or the educational process. The administration will be responsible for determining dress code violations.

Exceptions to the dress code must be approved by the school's administration. This may include spirit days, dress up days, senior camouflage spirit days, etc.

The following items are dress-code violations and are not appealable:

1. Clothing that contains inappropriate language; advertisements about drugs, alcohol, tobacco, or sex; suggestive words, lettering, or pictures glorifying death, pornography (including the Playboy Bunny logo), or violence. Clothing items depicting products or services that are forbidden to minors by law, including inappropriate websites, are not allowed to be worn at school or school sponsored events. Concerns about any student's dress should be immediately brought to the attention of the administration.
2. Clothing items must not include writing, pictures, or graphics that unreasonably attract the attention of other students or cause disruption or interference with the operation of the school (e.g., vulgarity, sexual innuendo).

3. Tank tops, shirts, or dresses that do not cover the waist, shoulders, back and chest.
4. Sleeveless shirts or sweaters that do not cover the entire width of the shoulders.
5. Exposed undergarments.
6. Shirts must not extend below shorts, giving the appearance that the student is not wearing pants.
7. Transparent or mesh clothing without an appropriate item underneath.
8. Sagging, bagging, and dragging trousers. Trousers and shorts must sit on the waist.
9. Jewelry that is offensive, distracts or is studded or pointed is unacceptable.
10. Pajamas and slippers.
11. Hats, caps, hoods, shower caps, sunglasses, bandanas, or any head coverings that could prevent the identification of a student are not allowed for safety reasons. When inside a school building, students are expected to remove any headwear. The exception to this rule is head coverings worn for religious reasons. School-appropriate headbands are allowed. RHS spirit hats may be worn on designated spirit days.
