THE CAMPUS CLOSURES FOR ALL STUDENTS AT 12:25 on May 23-26. NO AFTER SCHOOL ACTIVITIES EXIST DURING FINAL EXAM DAYS, AND STUDENTS MUST LEAVE CAMPUS BY THIS TIME.

STUDENTS EXEMPTING EXAMS ARE NOT REQUIRED TO BE ON CAMPUS FOR THE EXAM TIME.

(* The only exception to the campus closure at 12:25 will be for students who receive extended time accommodations as stipulated in a formalized support plan. Extended time will be provided in a specific location starting at 12:15 on exam days. Parents will be responsible for securing transportation to pick up students immediately following the conclusion of their extended time. More details will be communicated in the start of May to students for whom this applies).

Final Exam Exemption Policy 21-22

All students in 9th – 12th grade can exempt a course final exam if they meet the following criteria:

- An 85% or higher average in the course (without quality points)
- No OSS during the school year
- Students are mandated to take the EOC for the following courses: 11th Grade Literature (On-Level, AP, IB, Gifted/Advanced), Biology (On-Level and Gifted/Advanced), Algebra I, US History.
 - Students who take the EOC/ AP/IB exams are exempt from taking a final in those respective courses. The EOC counts as the final exam for these students.

* IB Year one course teachers may require IB students to participate in a final exam as preparation for future IB exams.

Teachers will inform students whether they are eligible to exempt final exams by the Friday before exams begin.

Any student that is exempting a final exam are not required to be on campus for that exam time. Any students on campus that are exempt must follow their regular schedule.
