Find It Draw It: Last week you found as many things as you could in categories from the list below. This week you are going to use one item from at least 5 of the categories and make a drawing. The items may not have anything to do with each other. That is ok. Have fun. Can you turn the items into characters by adding animal or human features? Can you make a story with these random objects? Use color if you have markers or crayons.

What did you find that was?

Primary colored items (Red, Yellow, Blue)	Soft textured surfaces (blankets, stuffed toys, etc.)
Secondary colored items (Orange, Green, Purple)	Things with lines on them
Warm colored items (Red, Orange, Yellow)	2D Shapes (Square, Circle, Triangle, etc.)
Smooth textured surfaces (tables, chairs, etc.)	Things with patterns on them (dots, checkered, wallpaper, etc.)
Cool colored items (Green, Blue, Purple)	3D Forms (box/block, sphere/ball, cone, cylinder, etc.)
Rough Texture surfaces (Tree bark, concrete, brick, etc.)	Neutral colored items (Black, White, Brown)
Complimentary color scheme of yellow and purple items	Complimentary color scheme of blue and orange items
Complimentary color scheme of red and green items

Shadow Sports: Shadow Ball is an age-old pastime that was made popular by the Harlem Globetrotters. Players pantomimed passing, catching, and shooting an invisible basketball. The artistry and creativity of the Globetrotters was so convincing and entertaining that fans would arrive early just to watch the Shadow Ball routine. Goose Tatum, a former member of the Harlem Globetrotters basketball team, is credited with the creation of the "Magic Circle" -a trademark ball-handling routine that's performed at the beginning of all Harlem Globetrotters games.

Choose two of the shadow sports cards and complete one challenge from each section, set up, bronze, silver, goal medal challenges, and for giggles & grins.

Don't have a partner or group to play shadow sports with, it's okay, you can imagine a shadow partner to play with as well. Imagine playing shadow ball with LeBron James or your favorite athlete from all the shadow sports listed!
