OODLES OF DOODLES

Kathy & Ken Bernhardt

Alliance's Theatre for the Very Young

Young Doodle loves to doodle. When emotions run high, he doodles. When he dreams, he doodles. When words fail, he doodles. So just imagine his excitement when he receives his first sketch pad! Join us on this journey through the secret pathways of creativity. Filled with live music, movement, imaginative drawings, and engaging storytelling, Oodles of Doodles is the perfect show for early learners learning to express themselves.

Artful Stories

Michael C. Carlos Museum

A wonderful experience for pre-Kindergarten students, Artful Stories is a multilayered educational program. The program and buses are offered free to FCS Pre-K classes through the generous funding support from the PNC Foundation in partnership with the Carlos Museum and the Teaching Museum.

Pre-K classes will travel to Emory University's Carlos Museum to explore the galleries, hear a story, and enjoy hands-on art making—a great opportunity for students to experience art, literacy, and cultures of the world.

The program is open to pre-Kindergarten classes of 23 students or less, with a minimum of 1 chaperone/teacher for every 5 children. If your group has special needs, please let us know.

This program is only available for Pre-K classes. Spaces are limited—so book now!

Artful Stories Spring Program:

Spring Tour and Book to Be Determined

If you are interested, please register for the "SPRING PROGRAM" on the "click here" link and select a date.

We will update you on the content of the program once it is confirmed.
