Roob and Noob

Theatre for the Very Young

Meet Roob & Noob: two overly curious scientists who love nothing more than discovering something new. Join them on this interactive adventure as they build machines from simple objects and explore the world and sensations of each of the four seasons. Inspired by Rube Goldberg’s magical machines, this unique theatrical performance combines science and the arts, proving that sometimes the most profound discoveries are achieved by simply playing.

All Smiles

Theatre for the Very Young

How do you smile? With your mouth or with your eyes? Does it show on your face or just on the inside? We all have different ways of showing, sharing & processing our emotions. So, when we send a smile to a friend, how is it received? What happens if it gets returned to sender? Created in partnership with the Marcus Center for Autism, this delightful show explores how all smiles are different.

The Lizard and El Sol

An interactive adventure based on a famous Mexican folktale about a time when El Sol, (the Sun), disappeared from the sky. Young ones and their caregivers will help the tenacious Lizard find the sleepy El Sol and finally coax him out of his hiding place. With colorful puppets and bright Mexican inspired music and dance, this journey culminates in a grand festival celebrating the joy of sunshine and friendship!

A wonderful experience for pre-kindergarten students, Artful Stories is a multilayered educational program. The program and buses are offered free to FCS Pre-K classes through the generous funding support from the PNC Foundation in partnership with the Carlos Museum and the Teaching Museum.

Pre-K classes will travel to Emory University’s Carlos Museum to explore the galleries, hear a story, and enjoy hands-on art making—a great opportunity for students to experience art, literacy, and cultures of the world.

The program is open to pre-kindergarten classes of 23 students or less, with a minimum of 1 chaperone/teacher for every 5 children. If your group has special needs, please let us know. The program is only available for Pre-K classes. Spaces are limited—so book now!
