FVS Latin 1A Syllabus

Course Description
This course covers Stages 1-10 of the Cambridge Latin Course Curriculum. There is a continuous story line throughout the textbook. The main characters are the Roman man Caecilius, his wife Metella, their children and their household slaves. We will get to know them well and be by their side as they endure a great tragedy: The destruction of their town by Mt. Vesuvius! In between the stories you will learn three important language components: Culture, Vocabulary and Grammar. We will learn pronunciation but speaking Latin is not an emphasis in the course. There is an assessment at the end of every lesson. Mastery will be assessed through quizzes and tests. There is a Final Exam, which is also given, online.

Course Objectives
The main objective of the course is to read and comprehend introductory level passages written in Latin about life in Ancient Rome. In order to do this, students will recognize and translate vocabulary appropriate to an introductory level course. In addition, students will learn to decipher beginning level grammatical forms and structures. Students will also identify Latin roots used in the English language and develop an understanding of the culture in Ancient Rome as well as its impact on modern society.

Student Expectations
The student is expected to check emails daily and respond to any communication within 24 hours. The student is expected to work an average of 45 minutes to 1 hour on their Latin course daily. I expect all work turned in to be the student's own, free from unauthorized help.

Communication
I will respond to any communication sent Monday-Friday between 8am and 8pm within 3 hours. I will respond to any communication after these hours promptly on the following business day. I am reachable by phone, email or text message.

All recovery work must be directly related to course objectives and must be completed ten school days prior to the end of the semester.

Communication – students will engage in conversations, understand and interpret spoken and written language, and present information on a variety of topics.

Culture – Students will learn about target culture products, practices and perspectives.

Connections – Students will connect aspects of their target language learning with information acquired in other subject areas such as math, science, social studies, English and the arts.

Comparisons – Students will demonstrate an understanding of the nature of language and culture, making comparisons between those of the target language and their own.

Communities – Students will find and engage in the target language outside of the school environment and show evidence of building a life-long skill for their own personal enjoyment and enrichment.

For Latin, these standards consist of “The 4 Cs”:

Communication – students will read passages, comprehend spoken Latin phrases, quotations, and expressions, and provide accurate, written English translations.

Culture – students will demonstrate an understanding of perspectives, practices, and products of the Greco-Roman culture.

Connections – students will reinforce and further the knowledge of other disciplines through the study of Latin.

In a virtual learning environment, honesty and integrity are integral traits for academic success. At Fulton Virtual, we believe that all students must show integrity in the completion and submission in all aspects of the academic experience. When collaboration is necessary to complete tasks and projects, Fulton Virtual School instructors will provide students with advance notice. Thus, all work is considered an individual assignment unless otherwise noted. The following list of dishonest behaviors has been compiled to assist you. This list is by no means exhaustive, and each infraction of academic dishonesty will be handled the virtual instructor on an individual, case-by-case basis.
