School Board member Kimberly Dove sworn in for first full term

At Thursday's Board Meeting, Fulton County Board of Education member Kimberly Dove was sworn-in to a four-year term of office. In January, Ms. Dove officially begins her first full term. She was appointed in 2017 to fill the unexpired term of former board member Catherine Maddox, who resigned due to health concerns.

Kimberly Dove, District 6
Kimberly Dove serves parts of College Park, East Point, South Fulton and Union City.

Ms. Dove has held various leadership roles as a school volunteer and as the president, vice president and parliamentarian of the Parent Teacher Student Association (PTSA) at Westlake High School. She also has served as co-chair for Westlake's School Governance Council and is a past recipient of the high school’s Volunteer of the Year Award. Additionally, she has been a member of the Superintendent's Parent Advisory Council and has held roles as PTA member and volunteer at Renaissance Elementary School, Camp Creek Middle School and Sandtown Middle School.

Ms. Dove also has strong professional leadership experience, including 15 years as an information technology (IT) expert with knowledge in leading, coaching and developing teams within the IT industry. She specializes in mergers and acquisitions with systems integrations and network infrastructure. She also has a concentration in analyzing corporate applications across multiple business units.

In addition to Ms. Dove’s professional experience and service to her community, she and her children are graduates of the public-school system. She is a proud parent of three children, one of whom is a graduate of Fulton County Schools.

Ms. Dove's overflow of service also spills into the community with her previous commitments as board member of Protecting Our Schools and Community (POSC) and as a member of the education committee for The People's Campaign. She is a long-time resident of South Fulton and currently resides in the newly-formed City of South Fulton.

Photos of Ms. Dove’s swearing-in ceremony are attached.
(Photo Caption #1) Fulton County School Board Member Kimberly Dove during swearing-in ceremony.

(Photo Caption #2) The Honorable Cassandra Kirk, chief judge of the Fulton County Magistrate Court, presided over the swearing-in of Board Member Kimberly Dove (center). They are shown here with Ms. Dove’s son, James, who arrived in support of Ms. Dove’s first full term.

###

About the Fulton County School System. The Fulton County School System is the fourth largest school system in Georgia. More than 95,000 students attend 106 schools in the cities of Alpharetta, Chattahoochee Hills, College Park, East Point, Fairburn, Hapeville, Johns Creek, Milton, Mountain Park, Palmetto, Roswell, Sandy Springs, South Fulton and Union City.