School board to meet for September 24 working retreat

The Fulton County Board of Education will meet tomorrow, September 24, at 10 a.m. for its routinely held working retreat.

All meetings of the school board are open to the public unless designated as executive session where, by law, the board must convene in private to discuss land, legal or personnel items. Any vote resulting from executive session discussion, however, will occur in an open public setting.

The meeting will be held at the school system's North Learning Center, located at 450 Northridge Parkway in Sandy Springs.
