Legacy of Excellence luncheon to recognize school system's top employees and business partners

Fulton County Schools' top employees will be honored Friday, November 1, at the district's annual recognition luncheon. The two-hour program begins promptly at 11:30 a.m. at the Georgia World Congress Center's Georgia Ballroom (Building C), located at 285 International Boulevard NW in Atlanta. The entire program will be streamed live. To view the live event, click here.

Approximately 1,000 employees, business partners and special guests will gather to pay tribute to each school's and administrative building's employees of the year. The celebration also is a time when schools formally honor the partnerships that have made outstanding contributions to student achievement, and who generously helped fund the Legacy of Excellence event.

Pamela Whitlock from Chattahoochee High School will be honored as Fulton County Schools' Teacher of the Year.

Four Principals will be recognized as the district's Principals of the Year.

- Scott Hanson - North Springs Charter High School
- Martin Neuhaus - Barnwell Elementary School
- Charles Chester - Northwestern Middle School
- LaToya Miley - A. Philip Randolph Elementary School

Martina Franklin will be honored as the School Professional of the Year, and Ed Weiss will be honored as the Overall Support Professional of the Year. To view a full list of Employees of the Year, click here. Join in the Twitter fun #FCSLegacy.
