Principal's Updates:

- a. Due to recent rising number of COVID-19 cases, the school has enhanced the mitigation protocols. Such as cafeteria and bathroom policy.
- b. There is a proposal presented to the district to add a safety associate reporting to the principal for all the middle school. This is subject to budget approval.
- c. Parents and students have provided positive feedback about the recent remote learning days.

Student belonging Survey update - Ms. Williams and Ann Ramsey:

- a. The schools counselors have been in touch with the twenty-nine students that responded significantly negatively to the survey and were placed in the super watchlist.
- b. The counselors have been meeting with aforementioned students on a one on one basis on their progress
- c. Such developments to be shared in the SGC newsletter and the staff meetings to appraise the larger teacher and parent community of the positive actions being taken by the school to elevate the student experience while at school.

Discussion Item: Public Comment:

Erin Schuler reported two new public comments.

One from a teacher that said "This is a challenging year, but I'm happy to be at WBMS."

One comment from a parent that said, "they just moved here this year and wow, they cannot get over how happy their kids are and every day they come home and tell them how much they've learned and how friendly their teachers are. And they've made friends quickly and tell us then how nice everything is and that they know their counselors”

Action Item: The SGC election candidature window opens up in February 2022 with voting dates in March. Principal Williams will be sending a communication to parents about upcoming SGC elections to nominate for SGC positions.

A banner to be placed on the school website for the SGC elections.

Similar update on the elections to be shared through the PTA newsletter, and the facebook page. Action – Kimberly Wolf.

Action Item : February Meetings: The February 4th SGC meeting will be utilized for discussions for the Budget and Finance and the Outreach and Communications committees. Principal Williams will share the current years budget with the finance committee members.
