- Help into a conducive learning environment
- Show respect to yourself and to others
- Listen attentively to others
- Read and follow directions
- Group or individual work require quiet and target language use
- Arrive to class on time
- If you are going to be late/absent, notify your teacher via email

Fulton County Schools Expectations

- FCS Code of Conduct
 - Please review the 2021-2022 FCS STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT HANDBOOK for full information.
 - In line with the Taylor Road mission to cultivate a culture of learning, students should remain in the learning environment (classroom) as much as possible.
 - Student conduct should be reported to the appropriate administrator via email or a behavior referral through the Infinite Campus system and will be handled in accordance with school and district guidelines at the discretion of the administrator.

Please know that we are committed to ensuring that all our students feel safe and ready to learn and will be providing students guidance, resources and support. Thank you for your partnership in teaching our students behavioral expectations and standards of conduct along with PBIS (Positive Behavioral Intervention and Support) rules.

- Special Ed Statement

Within this course, accommodations and modifications will be implemented based on students' current Individualized Education Plan (IEP). For specific goals and objectives and instructional levels, refer to your child's IEP.

Attendance

Students must attend class. All students should be present and engaged during the learning session. Attendance will be taken every day through Infinite Campus and will follow PBIS guidelines for tardies to class. Tardies to class will begin Monday, August 23, 2021

- 1st time: verbal warning from teacher
- 2nd time: parent contact from teacher
- 3rd time: Student detention as consequence.
- Remote Attendance: Students are allowed to have five (5) remote learning days per semester with pre-approval from Mr. Parker. If you receive emails regarding the requests, please forward them to Mr. Parker. During these instances, students will be provided with asynchronous work (can be via TEAMS). To be considered present remotely, work that is assigned must be submitted within two (2) days of absence. Students may not use a remote learning day on a summative assessment day.
- Assigned Remote Attendance: Students can be designated as Assigned Remote by the district based on guidance from state/local health officials if they need to be placed in medical quarantine. The assigned remote designation is an excused absence and does not require documentation from the student. More information is coming from the district, as contracted tutoring services are also being discussed

GRADING POLICY

Microsoft Office 365 is the Student Management System used in all Fulton County Classrooms. All classes will have a Class Teams platform set up that can be used in and/or outside the class. Students can access their Class Teams site through their Microsoft Office account. Grades will be visible in Infinite Campus.
