Information Item - PBIS Update and Student Success Skills (Rebecca DeWeese)

- PBIS - a real focus on making PBIS known to students and having rewards available for students to select beginning next month; goal is to have tickets turned in and rewards operated out of school store as much as possible w/ collaboration with Tami Saren; new tickets have arrived; emphasis on recognizing staff, as well, so teachers can recognize their peers for good hard work

- Student Success Skills – Lessons on Tuesdays and Thursday. Just finished pre-inventory for the year. Observations start this week, and EVERYONE is excited. A continued goal and focus to implement this county-required program with fidelity; observations start this week; working on buy-in to the program with students

Superintendent Advisory Council Update – waiting for dates.

Agenda Items for Next Meeting (Monday, 10/17 7:15 am): Updates, Name Superintendents Council Representative, Potential Vote on Position

MISC:

(TS) Booing the other bands, does not seem appropriate. Players tossing the ball on the field and starts practicing while the band still on the field. Overarching issue – working on professionalism and good sportsmanship. Roswell Game as an example – parent told to F off. How can we get this into PBIS? Rebecca DeWeese mentioning that Gary and Admin should be able to get this information out to Coaches.

Band has ten minutes. Milton Football team is particularly bad about interrupting. Easy to run into the band members, creating anger and harassment. Do coaches know what the window of time is / / kids cussing out adults // playing smash and pass with female members of the band. (Luke Netto) Lack of school pride. Bravehearts (???) seems Seniors are encouraging the bad behavior of the Soph and Juniors, instead of telling them not to do the behavior. (CH) A lot of violence at the school (SC).
