

Good morning Raiders, its October 27th and this is your Morning Message:

Attention Juniors, the Junior Class Meeting, is Monday, October 30th during Advisement. This is a required meeting for all Juniors. The presentation will be emailed to parents and posted to the AHS website. One-on-one Advisement meetings with your assigned counselor will begin Monday, November 4th. This meeting is mandatory for all Juniors, parents are welcome to attend. Scheduling directions will come from Ms. Taylor by Tuesday, October 31.

Seniors & Parents, November is Georgia Apply to College Month. School Counselors will be hosting drop-in sessions and for students to get one-on-one assistance from Counselors or peers who have already completed the application process. Counselors and the Graduation Coach will also be inviting local colleges to AHS for Instant Decision Day opportunities. Every student who has completed the Post Secondary Plan survey in Naviance will be entered into weekly drawings for prizes. More details coming next week.

Spotlight on student altruism: The A.H.S. Environmental Club recently volunteered with the City of Alpharetta at the Rivers Alive Watershed Cleanup event. For their active involvement in the event, the club was featured on the front page of the Alpharetta Roswell Newspaper and was offered future opportunities by the City of Alpharetta to encourage environmentalism in our community. This is a great accomplishment for the club.

Your lady Raider volleyball team dominated Woodward academy on Tuesday evening in a statement win securing their spot in the final four! Check out volleyball on Saturday as they take on St. Pius for a chance at the championship. Good Luck to our Lady Raiders, you've already made us all so very proud.

If you didn't get to see our fall play, check out Alpha Theater production of a Night of Murder Mysteries, tonight at 7:00 p.m. in the AHS Auditorium. Tickets can be purchased at AlphaTheatre.com or at the door. If you can't see them this evening, make plans to see our performance at regional one act competition tomorrow afternoon at Johns Creek, call time is:1:45pm

Congratulations to AHS Coach of the Year, Marc Lassiat. Coach Lassiat exemplifies a true Raider in everything he does. He is an instructional leader at AHS representing the Health/PE department as well the head baseball coach. When he's not coaching, he is assisting and supporting all of our athletic programs and clubs as an assistant athletic director. What stands out most, his willingness to always help, no matter who, what where and when

Get out to Blessed Trinity tonight for region football. Cheer on our Raiders as they continue their undefeated region run.

Home events for the week of Oct. 30th:

Thursday JV Flag Football 5:30 and 7:30

Saturday the 4th marching band competes at the annual White Columns Invitational.

That's all for now Rich Raiders, remember: keep it focused, keep it clean, keep it moving, keep it civil and keep it classy.
