

Good morning Raiders, its November 3rd and this is your Morning Message:

Our drama program received region runner up for their one act performance. Alpharetta received all-star cast recognition for performances by London Churchill and Ellie Spohrer. Great work on earning best set as well.

On Tuesday Nov. 7th, students will participate in an asynchronous remote learning day, students will not come to campus and should work with their teachers to determine expectations for each class.

Students with extended Lunch Privilege! Beginning Monday, 11/6/2023, the gate to exit campus to Webb Bridge Road will be temporarily closed and all students will be required to exit through the main entrance. Students must show their AHS Student ID with the correct sticker. If you do not have your ID, you may not leave campus.

AP Students taking a face-to-face courses, you should have completed your AP exam registration with your AHS classroom teacher. Please confirm your registration with your AP teacher

Students who are enrolled in virtual AP courses through Georgia Virtual School (GAVS) or Fulton Virtual School (FVS). You and your parents should have received several emails from Ms. Ketchup reminding you to complete your AP exam registration for this semester. All AP exam orders will be finalized November 13th. Please be sure you have completed this important registration to have an AP exam ordered for you and avoid a $40 late registration fee. GAVS/FVS students, if you have any questions regarding your AP exam registration, please contact Mr. Bolin.

Attention Junior Parents & Guardians, counselors are concluding in class visits for Juniors to complete the state mandated 11th grade bridge bill assignments. Please check your email and infinite campus messages for information from Ms. Taylor regarding the assignment and how to sign up for your student's one-on-one meeting with their counselor.

Seniors & Parents, AHS Counseling and Graduation Team will be hosting Kennesaw State Instant Decision Day, Tuesday, November 28th from 11-2 in the Center of Excellence. Please see the AHS website and AHS ENN for sign-up information.

Congratulations to broadcast media students for winning national recognition in the National Student Television Network 60 Second Horror Fest Contest. AHS placed 1st and 4th overall.

Best of luck to the marching band and color guard as they complete their season at the White Columns Invitational.

Tomorrow , Come out and support sophomore, Lidia Lo Faro, as she races at the 6A GHSA Cross Country State Championship this Saturday, she is ranked 18th overall and the 2nd sophomore in 6A.

In other state championship news, Volleyball plays for the ring tomorrow evening at Lakepoint sports complex, gametime is 6:30pm. The first 50 student tickets are free, arrive before 6:10 and check in with Mrs. Wiley, and you will be entered into a raffle for a complimentary gas card.

Home Events for the week of November 6th:

Monday- flag football senior night games at 5:30 and 7:30 pm

Thursday- Basketball kicks off the season with scrimmage games vs Cambridge

Friday November 10th football will begin state playoffs, location, time and opponent TBD>

That's all for now Rich Raiders, remember: keep it focused, keep it clean, keep it moving, keep it civil and keep it classy.