

Announcements for Monday, November 27, 2023

Basketball season is here!

Come out and support the Raiders this week as follows:

Varsity Girls host Meadowcreek tonight at 6:00

We host Dunwoody tomorrow with 9 Grade boys starting at 4:30 and Varsity Girls and Boys after that
Thursday JB Boys at 6:00

And finally on Friday all teams host Pope starting at 4:30.

New this season, featured "Guest Hoopers" at the boys' halftime. Also, concession stands will be open.
Look forward to seeing you all there!

Winterguard

Winterguard is indoor color guard that performs a choreographed show using flags, sabers, mock rifles, and other equipment, as well as dance and other interpretive movement. It is a beautiful display set to music. Sound interesting? Be sure to come out to AHS Winter Guard Try-outs, Tuesday through Thursday this week in the cafe from 5:00 to 6:30pm. Come be a part of one of Alpharetta's nationally competitive units! No experience is necessary.

Wrestling

The girls' JV and Varsity have a match on Wednesday starting at 5:30, so please stop by and support them.

Hygiene Drive

Support and donate essential hygiene items for the Unsheltered Hygiene Drive in support of Hunger Has No Religion Corporation. You can donate hygiene items until the break with boxes on all three floors. Email BSU Sponsor, Ms. Byrd with any questions.

The boxes are looking pretty empty and from what I understand the middles schools or beating our butts with donations. Toothpaste, deodorant, toilet paper, toothbrushes, personal wipes, grooming items such as combs and brushes and of course soap. Come on Alpharetta, this is for the unsheltered!
