February is Black History Month. The Black Student Union will be hosting special events throughout the month. Events include movie night featuring "Just Mercy," themed spirit week events, and black history month trivia. Save the date for Atlanta's HBCU College visits followed up by our Family Fun night on February 16th. The month wraps up with special invitation from BSU and Alpharetta Cultural Arts Commissioner, Gene Andrews for "Alpharetta Soul" on February 24th.

For a list of all Alpharetta High School's Black History Month festivities, visit The Black Student Union's Instagram: @alpharettabsu or contact Ms. Byrd for more information.

Attention parents and guardians of rising 11th and 12th grade students. The Dual Enrollment presentation and directions were emailed out to all parents and students, Tuesday, January 30th. Please check your spam folder and Infinite Campus messenger. The presentation and directions can be viewed on the AHS Counseling webpage.

Did you Student Turn in Their Work?

Missing assignment notifications began earlier this semester. This feature in Campus portal allows parents the opportunity to see the assignments that are still pending for this student. Parents should receive one email weekly outlining missing assignments.

School Governance Council- "The School Governance Council candidate declaration window will open on February 5th and Alpharetta has one parent position open on the SGC for the coming school year. The SGC plays an important role in the success of the school by working closely with school leadership and the community to determine and monitor the strategic direction of the school. Please consider adding your voice to our council by declaring your candidacy. Information can be found on the AHS SGC website."
