

Goood Morning Raiders, Its Friday April 19th and this is your morning message:

Thank you to the fine arts staff and our student artists and performers for a wonderful evening of the arts last night. Be sure to check out our upcoming AP art show and spring concert series in the upcoming weeks.

Congratulations to Mollie Bunarek for advancing to the state gymnastics meet this evening at Buford City Schools.

Parents, School Governance Council voting is now open through April 24th.

To learn more about the candidates, please visit our SGC website where you will find candidate statements. To access the voting system, use the unique link that was sent to your email. Thank you for taking part in this important process.

Attention 10th graders and parents, please be mindful of the email you received from Ms. Byrd about immunizations. Contact Ms. Byrd with questions about this process for all students 16 years and older.

Reminder that Milestones EOC testing begins next week with an altered bell schedule for ALL students Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. EOC testing plays a crucial role in maintaining our school's CCRPI rating. Students, we encourage you to give your best effort on this assessment. More information and daily schedules on our website and social media channels

AP Exams 2024

If you are taking an AP exam in May 2024 and have a potential scheduling conflict, please visit the AP Exam Testing Website on the AHS website to complete the conflict reporting form. For more information, please visit: <https://www.fultonschools.org/Page/28389>.

SENIOR FEATURE:

Graduation gown pickup is today, 4th -6th period periods on the gym track.

Mandatory graduation practice is Tuesday, May 14 from 3:30-5:30pm. Tickets will be distributed for students in good standing, be sure all outstanding debts are paid.

Grantham's Game Changers:

Integrity means doing the right the thing even when no one is watching. Julian Laud, a Junior here at Alpharetta , and a member of our Varsity Football team, is this week's Game Changer! Each day at the end of 4th period lunch, Julian can be found assisting our custodians with clean-up in the cafeteria. No one asked Julian to do this, he simply stepped up one day and began to help.

Coach Kervin says " Julain is very conscientious about doing the right thing. It's important to him to do what is expected of him and he always finds a way to take the extra step. He leads with his heart, and it shows."

Upcoming Events for Raider Nation:

Juniors and seniors: Prom is tomorrow. Tickets are discounted today for only $70 on OSP. Tickets are $150 on OSP at the door. As you prepare for this memorable event, remember the importance of behaving appropriately. Treat each other with respect and kindness

Tuesday 4/23 girls tennis host the next round of state playoffs.

Wednesday the 24th double header boys and girls lacrosse hosting round 1 of their playoff battle to state.

26th region track at BT and AP art show opens in the AHS gallery.

That's all for now RICH Raiders, remember: keep it focused, keep it clean, keep it moving, keep it civil , and keep it classy.